

Observing Children in a Childcare Setting

About the course

This course gives people working in the child care sector, the knowledge and confidence in observing children in their environment. The course covers the important aspects of observation, the observation processes and how to use the most effective methods of observations for defined purposes.

Who should attend

This course is suitable for both employees and employers in the childcare sector and no previous knowledge is required for this course. The course supports the EYFS statutory framework.

What you will learn

This course provides all the information needed to have a clear understanding of the processes involved in observation, helping you to create individualized outcomes for the children in your setting. Allowing you to transfer the learnt knowledge into your practice.

The length of the course

6 hours

Course content

- An introduction to observation
- Observation cycle
- Observation methods
- Assessment
- The next step - planning

Assessment and certification

The course is assessed by continuous assessment. A certificate is awarded for successful completion of the course.

Where you can do the course

This course can be held in your premises throughout the UK. Open courses are held in Wiltshire and Gloucestershire.

How much it costs

See price list.

How to apply

You can book on to a course or organise in house training:

- on our website www.switchtraining.co.uk
- by email info@switchtraining.co.uk
- by phone 01666 823626

